DAVID SWING DEAD.

The Eminent Divine Called to His Eternal Home.

UNCONSCIOUS WHEN HE DIED.

Aente Blood Poisoning, Brought on by an Attack of Jaundice, Was the Immediate Cause of His Death—Every Possible Restorative Applied in Vain—Brief Biography of His Eventful Life.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Professor David Swing died at 8:10 o'clock last night of acute blood poisoning, brought on by an attack of jaundice. Yesterday morning

DAVID SWING.

Prof. Swing's temperature was very high. He gave no signs of consciousness. The physicians attending him would not say anything, but from their actions and careful attendance upon him it was plain that they regarded his condition as being critical, and that there was only the merest shadow of hope for his life. Late in the afternoon the physicians announced that blood poisoning had set in, and that the patient's death could only be a matter of a few hours. Every possible restorative was applied in vain, and 10 minutes after 8 Professor Swing was dead.

Professor Swing was born in Cincinnati, Aug. 23, 1830, at which place his father was engaged in the steamboat business. At the age of 18 the boy entered Miami university at Oxford, O., from which institution he graduated in 1852. In 1863 he accepted the pastorate of the Westminster Presbyterian church of this city, which was later united with the North Presbyterian church, the two forming the Fourth Presbyterian church, one of the wealthiest and most influential institutions of its kind in Chicago.

Shortly after the great Chicago fire of 1871, occurred the most important event in the great minister's career—his trial before the Chicago presbytery on a charge of heresy preferred by the Rev. Dr. Francis L. Patton, now president of Princeton college. These charges, of which there were 28 specifications of lapses from Presbyterian doctrine, were not sustained, there being 61 members in the presbytery and only 18 votes against him. But the subsequent feeling was so bitter that Professor Swing brought matters to a close by resigning his pastorate, a large number of his friends going with him and forming the Central church, in which Professor Swing has since labored with great success. For two years services were held in McVicker's theater, a permanent home being since secured in Central Music hall.

CONVICT TRAIN WRECKED.

Several Guards and Several Convicts Injured, Some of Whom May Die.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 4.—A disastrous wreck occurred in the Brushy Mountain railroad, 16 miles from Harriman, Tenn., yesterday, in which several convict guards and convicts were injured, some of whom may die. The most seriously injured are: D. O. Webster, Bon Air, Tenn., foreman; J. N. Blankall, Nashville, guard; R. H. Burrows, Oliver Springs, guard; John Thornhill and Green Armstrong, convicts.

Thirty-nine convicts whose names are not known were also injured.

The accident was caused by a landslide at the end of a short curve. One of the convicts who had about 20 years to serve secured one of the injured guard's guns and guarded the other prisoners, keeping them from escaping while the wreck was being cleared.

Railroad Cut off.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 4.—The Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking railroad has been entering the city over the Big Four tracks from the edge of the city and landing passengers at the Big Four depot under contract. Yesterday the switch was spiked and the Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking trains could not get into town. The shutdown causes a stoppage of work at the Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking coaldocks, as no cars can be got in. Several hundred workmen have been thrown out of employment.

An Old Lady Burned to Death.

BELLEFOINTAINE, O., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Hester Ann Newlin, an aged lady living near the Lewistown reservoir, was burned to death. She was in the act of burning out a chicken coop to rid the place of insects, when her clothing ignited. Being old and feeble she was unable to fight the flames that enveloped her or to run for assistance. When she was found her clothing was burned from her body.

Ruth Cleveland's Birthday.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Oct. 4.—Ruth Cleveland, daughter of the president, yesterday gave a birthday party, assisted by her father and mother. It was very rainy, so that the children were compelled to remain indoors, where amusements were provided and refreshments were served. About a dozen little people were present. President Cleveland's daughter received numerous gifts during the day.

MILLERSBURG, O., Oct. 4.—Edward Casper of Fredericksburg is in jail here in default of $1,000 bail. The charge against him is robbing Alfred Slutze, an old man living near Mount Hope, of $800 several weeks ago.

FOUL NIGHT.

Lawrence Farrell No Match for Denver Ed Smith.

DENVER, Oct. 4.—About 250 sporting men left the city early yesterday afternoon on a special train on the Denver and Gulf road to witness the mill between Denver Ed Smith and Lawrence Farrell for a purse of $5,000. The train ran about 20 miles from the city, and the ring was quickly pitched on the open prairie by the side of the track and in the same spot where Smith defeated Farrell eight years ago.

The men entered the ring at 3 o'clock. Referee Reddy Gallagher announced that Smith weighed 134 pounds and Farrell 171 pounds, and that the mill was simply a sparring match for points and would not be a fight to a finish—this last statement was made for the ears of a dozen deputy sheriffs who were in the crowd.

In the first round Smith led and surprised Farrell, who returned the compliment with a will. A moment later Smith smashed Farrell over the eye and drew first blood. Farrell endeavored to strike Smith after each clinch, and he now rushed at Smith and it was give and take. Smith got in two over the heart, and Farrell retaliated by sending in two on the neck. The men clinched and Smith fell to the ground.

Second round.—The men came together like a whirlwind; both led, and Smith played for the ribs and Farrell got in several on the face. Here Smith accused Farrell of sticking his elbow on Smith's face. Farrell was cautioned, but he continued to jab at Smith. Smith seemed to be too fat, but he punched with good effect.

The third, fourth and fifth was simply a repetition of the first and second round, the men frequently clinching, Farrell fouling Smith with his elbow and Smith punching Farrell with his hands.

In the sixth round Farrell threw Smith. He claimed that Smith held a glove in his mouth and he could not help it. A moment later they clinched, Farrell fouling Smith with his elbow and Smith punching Farrell with his hands.

Gallagher gave the fight to Smith and withdrew his decision a minute later, saying that he would give Smith the fight on the next foul. A moment later Farrell again struck Smith and threw him over the ropes.

Gallagher gave Smith the fight on this foul.

Farrell was not in the fight from the first, as he was greatly overmatched. Although Smith's weight was announced as 184 he told a friend after the fight that he weighed exactly 205 pounds. This is Smith's first fight since he whipped Goddard. Farrell is known throughout the northwest as Bill Keogh.

Corbett Will Fight Fitzsimmons.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—William A. Brady said last night that Corbett has posted $10,000 to fight Fitzsimmons, and a conference will be held in New York Oct. 11.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION RETURNS.

Nearly Complete Returns Show a Large Republican Gain.

HARTFORD, Oct. 4.—Returns from all except two out of 154 towns in this state that held local elections Monday, show a Republican gain of 23 towns.

The majorities are not complete yet, but indicate a Republican majority sufficient to elect governor without the election being thrown into the legislature at the November election.

Of the towns heard from 106 went Republican, 29 Democratic and 27 were divided. Last year 88 went Republican, 50 Democratic and 29 were divided. The two missing towns are Sterling, in Windham county, and New Fairfield, in Fairfield county. Both of these were divided in politics last year.

Election in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Oct. 4.—A lighter vote was polled in the state election yesterday than was cast two years ago. The Democratic ticket was elected by a majority estimated at 30,000. Atkinson, Democrat, for governor, ran behind his ticket. Many old soldiers either scratched him or voted for Hines, Populist.

NUCLEIN AND TUBERCULOSIS.

Wonderful Things Claimed for the Discovery of Dr. Vaughan.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 4.—Dr. V. C. Vaughan, dean of the University of Michigan medical faculty, believes that he has discovered a certain specific for tuberculosis. The product is called nuclein, and was but recently made. The doctor has just returned from the international congress of hygiene at Budapest, Hungary, where he read a paper on his discovery which attracted great attention. He has not proceeded far enough in his experiments to declare that nuclein will absolutely prevent tuberculosis in men, but has proved that it will in animals. Albert A. Watson, a senior law student from Detroit, has, however, tried the nuclein. In nine months he gained 12 pounds and seems entirely cured.

Murder in a Saloon.

HINTON, W. Va., Oct. 4.—M. F. Wyckoff, a saloonist, struck Dan Halloran, an engineer, with the butt end of a pistol, breaking his skull. Halloran will probably die. After the blow was struck and Halloran fell Wyckoff had him dragged out and left lying on the pavement. There is intimation of lynching.

Death in a Well.

IRON CITY, Tenn., Oct. 4.—Mordic Jones, a farmer living near this town, and Joseph Richardson, a laborer, were killed yesterday by inhaling carbonic acid while digging a well. They were in the well and when assistance reached them were found dead.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE

Strained Relations Existing Between the Two Countries.

IT WILL NOT RESULT IN WAR.

The British Cabinet Was Summoned to Discuss the Critical State of Affairs in China, Not Enough English War Vessels in the Orient to Protect British Subjects. France Not Hostile Toward England.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Inquiries made by the Associated Press correspondent at the foreign office, elicited the information that the calling of a cabinet council has no connection whatever with the meeting of the French cabinet on the same day. The relations between Great Britain and France have certainly been strained during the past six months since the attacks of the French press on the Marquis of Dufferin, the British ambassador at Paris. Numerous colonial questions have also given rise to friction.

Although the government ministers would be glad to seize upon an occasion to discuss these matters, the cabinet would not have been summoned, but for the dangerous appearance of the situation in China.

The Marquis of Dufferin is still in the north of Ireland, and he will not return until the end of the week. If the relations with France had been the cause of the summoning of a cabinet council, Lord Dufferin would certainly have come to London to consult with Lord Rosebery, the premier.

The Marquis of Ripon, the colonial secretary, arrived at the colonial office yesterday evening and held a consultation with various officials connected with affairs in China. The Indian office has been in frequent communication with the viceroy and the commander-in-chief of the forces in India, regarding the time requisite to dispatch troops to China. British Minister O'Connor's dispatches from Pekin indicate that the danger to foreigners in China is considerable.

Sir William Robinson, governor of Hong-Kong and Admiral Freeman, commander of the British fleet, are acting in conjunction with Mr. O'Connor for the protection of British residents. Admiral Freeman has 20 vessels in his fleet, but many of them are obsolete from a fighting point of view, and are only able to do duty as guardships. It is stated that China would make no objection to giving British troops a camping ground on the mainland.

FRANCE NOT HOSTILE.

No Question Between France and England Grave Enough for a Scare.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Paris correspondent of The Standard says that he has made inquiries in the proper quarters, and that he is in a position to state that whatever urgent communications have been received by the British foreign office they did not come from France. No urgent communication could have been sent from the French foreign office without being first submitted to the French cabinet. The last cabinet meeting was held a week ago.

A despatch from Paris to The Daily News says there is no pending question between France and England grave enough to justify a scare. In a leader on the situation The Daily News reiterates that the cases of anxiety have not arisen in the British relations with France.

No Blockade in Madagascar.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The reports that the ports of Madagascar had been blockaded came by the way of Mauritius. It is believed possible that, though there has been no formal blockade necessitating the notification of the powers, the commanders of the French men-of-war may have been instructed to maintain the surveillance of the coast with increased rigor to prevent the landing of arms and ammunition, the French government having received reports that consignments of war material were being dispatched from Europe to Madagascar. Leading merchants in the Malagasy trade in London, being interviewed, say the latest dispatches that they had received contained no mention of blockades.

Not Enough British Troops.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The British troops now at Hong-Kong, about 800 infantry and two batteries of artillery, are quite inadequate to protect the British subjects at the various treaty ports.

Unfounded Rumors.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Times, on the authority of its Portsmouth correspondent, declares that the sensational rumors regarding the movements of the British fleet are unfounded.

Bomb Found in an Elevator.

ELYRIA, O., Oct. 4.—Great excitement was caused here yesterday by the discovery of a powerful nitroglycerin and dynamite bomb placed in the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern elevator. Workmen found the bomb with fuse attached hidden in the building. It contained sufficient nitroglycerin and dynamite to equal 100 pounds of the most powerful giant powder. If the bomb had exploded it would have wrecked the elevator and several large buildings adjoining.

RHINECLIFF, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Ex-Vice

President Morton was yesterday officially notified of his nomination as Republican candidate for governor. Senator Saxton and Judge Albert Haight were with Mr. Morton when the committee of notification arrived. General Collis delivered the notification addressees. Messrs. Morton, Saxton and Haight followed with brief addresses of thanks and acceptance.

WHITE CAPPING INCIDENT.

Efforts to Intimidate a Farmer Fail of Effect.

CORVON, Ind., Oct. 4.—Daniel Wheat, near this city, received a White Cap letter the other day warning him to leave a farm on which he was living. He refused to go. Last Sunday night men came to his house and tried to break in. He fired on the men and they left.

Yesterday John W. Welker and his son Alva, owners of the farm, went to Wheat and demanded the White Cap letter. It was refused. The Welkers then attacked Wheat with rocks and clubs, and Wheat struck John Welker across the head with a club, inflicting a dangerous wound. John Welker was a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church for a number of years. He was silenced from the ministry upon the charge made that he and his son were thought to be implicated in the White Capping of the Rev. Van Cleave some two years ago.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

A Lady Dragged From Her Home and Badly Beaten.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 4.—Fairmount has a sensation, the result of a mysterious assault committed on Mrs. Clark Wright, residing west of that town. Mrs. Wright states that she was sitting on her porch after dark, her husband being inside the house, when she was grasped from behind and dragged to a field across the road.

As her assailant lifted her over the fence, he exclaimed, "I'll stop the lying you have been doing on me and bury you so deep the dogs won't find you." Then she lost consciousness, and when her husband found her two hours later she was lying in a field, her face covered with blood and her head and body covered with contusions. Bailey Payne has been arrested charged with assault with intent to commit murder, but he denies the accusation. Mrs. Wright is confident he is the guilty party.

MRS. OELRICH'S INHERITANCE.

She Is Twenty-Five and Now Gets Her Slice of the Fair Fortune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Herman Oelrichs of New York, who was Miss Therese Fair in the days of her residence in San Francisco, has celebrated her 25th birthday, and consequently the first large slice of devised property is about to be cut from the estate of the late Mrs. Therese Fair. It will amount to something like $1,500,000, and a receipt for that amount scheduling various gilt-edged appraised securities has already been drawn up by the executors for her signature. One reason for the presence of Mrs. Oelrichs and Miss Virginia Fair in this city just now is for the transfer to Mrs. Oelrichs of her inheritance. Another is the transfer of the remains of Mrs. Fair from the temporary vault to an imposing mausoleum of granite now completed at a cost of $50,000.

Violating the Fish Law.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 4.—Never since pioneer days have bass been so plentiful in the waters of Raccoon and Sugar creeks. The holes below every rippled seem alive with them, and the tempting conditions have led to an unlawful use of seines. Reports from all over Montgomery county are to the effect that the fish laws are being flagrantly violated. Last week an Indianapolis party secured several hundred pounds of fish from the waters of Raccoon in Putnam county with dynamite and seines. The fly-fishermen state that prosecutions will be numerous.

Violent Wind and Rainstorms.

ENOLIS, Ind., Oct. 4.—A violent wind and rainstorm broke over this place, the wind lasting about an hour, and at times attaining a velocity of 35 miles an hour. The city warehouses, under process of construction, were blown down and the roofs were lifted from nearly every building in the northwest part of the town, while the lowlands were flooded with water. By the fall of the warehouse Frank Key, the night watchman, received a broken collar bone, a broken arm and internal injuries which may prove fatal.

He Will Be Charged With Murder.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 4.—Mrs. John Dickens, residing two miles west of here, who was assaulted and horribly beaten by her husband a few days ago, died last night of her injuries. Her husband had been arrested for assault and battery, but was released on bail furnished by himself, as he is quite wealthy. Dickens will be arrested on a charge of murder in the first degree, if found. His whereabouts are unknown. The murdered woman was 70 years old, and of a prominent family. Indignation is great, and if captured the murderer may be roughly handled.

Fatal Runaway.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. William King, living near here, were driving home yesterday, when their team took fright and ran away. Mrs. King tried to jump from the wagon, but as the team was moving very rapidly she made a fatal leap. She was severely bruised and received injuries from which she died shortly afterward. Mr. King attempted to drive the team into a fence to stop it and was thrown out and injured internally. He is not expected to live.

The editor of the Ledger will need all his prayers later on.

It's no new thing with some of the Republican candidates for county office, to count on going in on Democratic disaffection and Democratic votes, but they will find, as before, that they have reckoned without their host.

The registration at Lexington this week gives the Democrats a vote of 3,100 in round numbers and the Republicans 2,100, a majority for the Demmies of 1,000. There's an increase of 400 in the Democratic vote compared with the registration last year. This is a healthy growth and is full of encouragement.

ORTHODOX TALK.

The contest for control of government in this country, is between Democrats and Republicans. Organization is absolutely essential to the success of either party. If the party lines are drawn between candidates for the most important office given by the people, it is the duty, says the Frankfort Capital, of every loyal partisan to vote for the choice of his organization. By no other means can the organization be kept intact and ready for efficiency when more important officers are to be chosen. Good politics demands loyalty to party organization, and, as between two men, both capable, seeking the same office, the one loyal to his party, and who has been chosen by party nomination, should receive, and is entitled to receive, the support of all his party associates in the organization. If personal preferences are superior to party allegiance, then political organizations are worthless. Isn't this sound doctrine? Will you, if you are a true Democrat, say that it is not?

SOME BENEFITS OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

"American manufacturers of jute bagging have exported their product in considerable quantities, selling it at free-trade prices in the markets of the world. They have been able to do this," says the New York World, "because by better organization and more perfect machinery they could pay American wages, charge the American consumer what they pleased, and sell their surplus abroad."

"The new tariff bill puts jute bagging upon the free list, that is, it places the American consumer of jute bagging upon the same footing as the foreign consumer. If the American manufacturer desires to retain the American market he must sell his product to the American consumer at the price he sells to the foreign consumer."

"That is one effect of the new tariff. Another benefit is the placing of wool upon the free list. The tax on foreign wools has greatly retarded the development of the manufacture of wool in the United States. In order to make marketable cloths it is necessary to mix the foreign wool with the domestic product. The tax on this foreign wool has been so high as to check the imports, and increase the price of this joint product. The consequence is, the British and German woolen manufacturers have controlled the markets of the world."

"The tax on wool has been maintained chiefly to delude the American farmer with the idea that he was being benefited by it."

"The tariff is a tax; the lower the tax the better for the taxpayer. The new tariff is not all we want, but it is better, far better, for the farmer than the McKinley act. Now let the farmers demand of all parties that they move forward in the direction of tariff reform, which is tax reduction."

The association will be known as the Dixie Athletic Club, and it will start out with seventy-five or one hundred members. Sixty-four names have already been enrolled. Many of the leading young men of the city are members.

The club has effected an agreement with the Knights of St. John and will put up a gymnasium in their hall on the third floor of the Dodson building on East Second street.

Messrs. Martin and Fremont are in Cincinnati to-day purchasing the outfit for the rooms. The gymnasium will be opened Wednesday evening, October 10th. A series of athletic exhibitions will probably be given during the winter.

Ariel Sextette.

To listen to the Smith Sisters is to give emphasis to the fact that the interpretation of vocal music is specially the province of woman. It is a realm where her sway will always be undisputed; and, so long as there are artists like Miss Gertrude to sing, they will inspire composers to write. Hear them to-night. Seats on sale at Nelson's.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

The State Weather Bureau's Final Report for the Season of 1894. Past Week Favorable.

The weather of the week has, upon the whole, been favorable to farming interests. The temperature was generally slightly below the normal, and on the nights of the 25th, 26th and 27th light frosts occurred on the lowlands in different parts of the State. But little damage resulted from them, though they alarmed many farmers into cutting unripe tobacco. No rain fell except light showers in the northern half of the State on the 29th, and but little fall plowing has been done on account of the dryness of the soil. Good rains are needed for this work as well as to insure good autumn pasture.

The cool weather has retarded the growth of late corn, much of which is still unripe, though considerable cutting has been done in localities where it has attained an advanced stage.

About one half of the tobacco has been cut and housed in good condition. Much of that remaining in the fields is very late and there are fears that it will not mature before the occurrence of severe frosts.

The greater portion of the hemp crop has been harvested and reports indicate a fair yield.

Potato digging is in progress, with prospects of a good crop.

Note—As the growing season is drawing to a close, the weather crop bulletin will be discontinued until next spring, with the present issue. The director desires to express his thanks to the crop correspondents for their faithful work during this season, and to assure them that the valuable information obtained from them is fully appreciated by the general public in all sections of the country.

The Court of Claims, at the session this week, adopted the following resolution and ordered it spread on the minutes and a copy to be sent to the family of the deceased:

Resolved, That it is with a feeling of the profound regret that this court is called upon to take cognizance of the death of our esteemed colleague, Squire O. N. Weaver.

The twenty-seven years which he devoted to the services of the county were productive of usefulness of the highest import, and much of the credit attached to the past deliberations of this body is due to his mature judgment and extraordinary ability.

Kid, generous and brave, true to his convictions and consistent in every official act, our county has sustained an irretrievable loss; his family an affectionate father and a tender and considerate husband.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

DEMOCRATS AHEAD.

The City Registration Gives Them a Plurality of Nearly 100—Interesting Figures.

The result of the annual registration this week has been published. The total shows an increase of 86 over the total vote registered on the regular registration day a year ago.

The grand total vote registered last year—on the regular and special days for that purpose—was 1,521, only 54 more than that of this week.

The registration of those who were out of the city or sick Tuesday will be made by the County Clerk on the 29th, 30th and 31st of this month, and it will undoubtedly increase the total beyond last year's figures.

The political affiliation of the voters who registered this week is of special interest. A footing up of the books shows the following:

STOLE SHOES.

"CHIP" FIELDS ACCUSED OF STEALING SIX PAIRS—LOOKS LIKE A PLAIN CASE.

"CHIP" FIELDS was in the Police Court again this morning. This time he was charged with stealing shoes, and Judge Wadsworth held him for further trial. His bail was fixed at $100.

MR. TURNER, who drives a wagon for Mr. J. R. Linville, of Mt. Olivet, came to town yesterday and had several orders for goods filled. Last evening he left his wagon in front of Coughlin & Downing's stable, and on returning shortly afterwards missed six pairs of shoes and a pair of boots. Some of the paper that had been wrapped about them was lying on the ground under the wagon.

FIELDS had been about the stable and was at once suspected. A watch was set and soon "CHIP" returned and carefully picked up all of the paper and stuffed it in his pockets. He was accused of the theft and a search was made.

The goods were found in a stable on the alley back of the jail.

It was brought out at the trial that "CHIP" was seen on the wagon and was seen carrying a package away, and it looks like a plain case.

ALWAYS IN THE FIGHT.

CARLISLE MERCURY: "Rolla Hart is one of the most faithful Democrats in Kentucky. He has contributed of his time and means. He has never failed to respond to any call made upon him. He is in full sympathy with the farmers and laborers of this country. He is an active worker in every position he assumes. He is not gifted with gab, but he is always recognized in the fight. He is such a man as we need in Congress, and he is as certain to go there as the election comes off. No Democrat need fear to vote for him."

R. A. MITCHELL says he assaulted W. A. Sudduth because the latter "grinned at him."

RIPLEY BEE: "Not long since a young man was in this city with two heads on his shoulders. Both were fully developed heads with rather handsome features, one crowned with light hair, the other with black. The young man is not a museum freak, as might be supposed. The other head was the property of his sweetheart and would probably not have been in such a deformed position had it not been for the young lady's neglect to 'pull down the blinds.'

BROWNING & CO.

Our Business:

Just three weeks ago we opened our doors for business.

The good people of Mason and adjoining counties have shown their appreciation of a first-class Shoe Store, and our most sanguine expectations have been passed. Our future success depends upon your patronage; we will merit it in this way: By giving you all the latest novelties and approved styles—everything that is honest and good in Footwear at the very lowest margin of profit. We will never deceive you in advertisements, nor permit our salesmen to misrepresent our goods. We mean to stay; watch us grow. As beginners, we do not expect to run the town. We will be satisfied for awhile with a fair share of the trade, and this we already have. But when it is once seen that we keep nothing but A 1 goods and sell them for less money than others ask for inferior qualities, then—then it will come our way. Our system: Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. This speaks volumes for our confidence in our goods and more for our prices.

DISORDERS IN CHINA.

Foreigners Fleeing to Shanghai as the Only Place of Safety.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A dispatch from Hankow says that as a consequence of the urgent demands of the imperial authorities the province has been denuded of troops. Turbulent mobs have demonstrated at several points that the authorities are powerless to check them. Europeans are alarmed, and the British consul has advised that all women and children be sent to Shanghai, which is considered the safest place. This will be done as soon as possible. The men, with the traders and officials, have formed a volunteer corps to protect themselves.

The viceroy fears that the mob will break out in armed rebellion. He is having fortifications thrown up at Wo-Chang, on the other side of the river, to be ready in case an attack on the city is attempted.

The Same Report from Shanghai.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 4.—Married European officials in the customs service at Pekin are, with their families, leaving that city owing to the unsettled condition of affairs there, the recent assaults upon foreigners and the general anti-foreign feeling. The feeling of uneasiness continues at New-Chwang and Hankow. At the latter place the foreign residents are considering the advisability of sending away the ladies. A small volunteer corps has been formed by the customs officials at Hankow. Confidence has been partially restored by the presence of the British gunboat Esk.

GROCER STELLING'S MISTAKE.

Told Wife About His Bag of Gold—Now Both Are Gone.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Charles Stelling, grocer, is out $5,000 in cash and debts valued at $30,000 and a pretty wife, who has deserted him for a streetcar conductor. Bonds, papers and everything pocketable have disappeared from the Stelling residence. Stelling is eccentric, and one day confided to his wife that he had stored away in a convenient chest a big bag of gold for an emergency. This emergency came when Mrs. Stelling decided to elope with Alexander McNeill, a streetcar conductor. Besides owning three groceries and a coalyard, Stelling possessed much valuable business and residence property, all of which he placed in his wife's name soon after his marriage. The deeds to the property, with certificates of corporation and mining stock and the bag of gold, have gone east with the eloping couple. Stelling is at a loss how to recover any of his possessions.

MURDER ON AN ELECTRIC CAR.

Another Killing Takes Place in a Ten Year Fend.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.—Ten years ago Thomas Sweeney shot and killed a man named Ferguson. Yesterday afternoon a son of Ferguson shot and mortally wounded Sweeney. The shooting took place in an electric car on St. Charles avenue. It was witnessed by a dozen people and was one of the most cold-blooded crimes that has occurred in this city for some years. Young Sweeney was motorman and it was while he was at his post of duty he shot him down. He was attacked without warning, and before he realized what was taking place, his murderer had sent three bullets into his head.

The feud between the Ferguson and Sweeney families dates back 10 years. It was all on account of politics. The Fergusons claim that a man by the name of Conrad Hepp induced Sweeney, who was shot yesterday, to kill old man Ferguson. A year later Hepp was killed by a brother of the man who shot Sweeney yesterday. The murderer was arrested.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

NORTONVILLE, Kans., Oct. 4.—The Santa Fe passenger train, which is due here at 6 p. m., came near being wrecked five miles west last night. The train was crowded with people who had been to Topeka to hear Governor McKinley speak. Some unscrupulous had placed ties across the track. Fortunately the engineer saw the ties in time to avert a serious wreck. No one was hurt and but small damage was done to the engine.

Forest Flames in Wisconsin.

GRANTSBURG, Wis., Oct. 4.—A hurricane of flames has swept over the Black Brook country, 12 miles north of here, burning everything in its path. Hundreds of tons of hay, together with other property is destroyed. Some buildings were burned. As this section is composed of new settlers, it leaves them in a pitiable condition. An appeal will be made to Governor Peck for aid. A relief committee has been organized here.

Reporter Fatally Injured.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Dudley Miller of Oswego, reporter for The Horse World of Buffalo and the Syracuse Post, was seriously, if not fatally injured, while on his way to Kirk park races on a trolley car. Miller was one of the 40 of a crowded open car and did not see a closed car coming up the other track toward him. He was knocked off and crushed between the two cars.

FARMERS' CONGRESS.

Interesting Opening Session Held at Parkersburg, W. Va.

PARKERSBURG, Oct. 4.—The farmers' national congress delegates continue to arrive. A pleasant opening session was held yesterday morning at the Academy of Music. Governor MacCorkle did not arrive and the state address of welcome was not made.

Mayor W. H. Smith's address on behalf of the city was responded to by the national secretary, John M. Stahl of Illinois. Colonel D. G. Purse of Georgia addressed the congress in the afternoon on "The City vs. the Farm." Rain dampened the ardor of the delegates somewhat, but much enthusiasm prevails and the city is daily enthusiasm.

Two Fishermen Forced Out to Sea.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—The fishing schooner John M. Keene of Boston, from the channel fishing grounds, has arrived here with colors at half-mast. The captain reports that on Sept. 29, two of the crew, John Matheson and Howard Smith, left the vessel to tend the trawls. The captain thinks their boat struck a swordfish, which towed it out to sea. Matheson was 26 years old, single, and made his home in this city. Smith was about 22 years of age, and came from Halifax, N. S.

Injured in a Runaway.

VALLEYVIEW, Ky., Oct. 4.—Z. B. Newman of Spears, Ky., was driving a team hitched to a grain drill, when they became frightened, running away. Newman became entangled in the lines and was dragged for some distance. One of his ears was torn off and part of his skin torn loose from his head.

May Be a Miners' Strike.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 4.—If the machine mino operators do not agree to pay the wages demanded—three-fifths of the pick scale—by the close of the week, there will probably be a strike. Since the settlement of the great strike the machine operators have not paid the scale within 5 cents.

Mentally Unbalanced.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Oct. 4.—Roscoe McClung, 60 years old, of Rock Creek township, this county, committed suicide by hanging himself. The loss of a considerable sum of money, together with domestic troubles, unbalanced him mentally.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $120,944,939, of which $59,372,305 was gold reserve.

No More Milk.

"There is no more milk in the world," said an old gourmet as he sat at his luncheon at the Manhattan club. "It has gone, and not even a bubble of regret seems to mark the spot where it sank out of sight. Milk, the earliest staff of all generations, is now a thing unknown in polite circles. It's all cream now. It does not matter whether I dine here or in Texas or in California, everywhere the waiters ask: 'Will you take cream in your coffee?' and 'Will you have cream hot or cold?' The good old staple, milk, is no longer called by name. Even in Chicago they call it cream. Milk is tabooed. It has gone out of existence with the word 'woman,' the word 'undertaker,' the word 'dress' and a lot of other noble terms. Now it's always cream, lady, funeral director and gown wherever you go, even in Chicago. And yet the 'cream' is often pale blue and thin, and if it was not served as cream I would swear it was milk, and darned bad milk at that."—New York Sun.

HER LITTLE FLOWER.

And She Sank to Rest Clutching the Tiny Treasure to Her Breast.

She found the tiny, tender plant when first it showed its tremblig head above the travel worn slabs of granite that paved the narrow alleyway which was her only playground. She gave a cry of delight when she saw the delicate shoot peeping out from between the cold gray stones, and from that moment it filled a part of her life that heretofore had been empty. She nourished it with water and jealousy guarded it from the onslaughts of rowing boys and the too near approach of cart wheels that came crunching through the alley, and often did her violet eyes tremble with suppressed tears as she saw the ponderous wheels rolling so close to her treasure.

Under her care and watchful attention it steadily grew, and when delicate leaves unfolded themselves and disclosed to her delighted eyes a blossom of sweetness her happiness was complete, and she sank beside it and feasted her vision on loveliness she had never seen before.

One day she did not come at her usual hour to moisten the thirsty plant, and it would doubtless have perished but for a gentle shower that came to kiss the drooping head. The next day she did not come, and the lonely plant got its only help from the leaking of a passing water cart. Far up in one of the narrow rooms she lay on a little cot panting for breath. Her once rosy cheeks were now pale and white, and the soft blue eyes shone with a sparkling glow. Her head tossed restlessly from side to side, and moans of pain crept from the drawn lips.

Occasional words broke from her, but of such an incoherent nature that none understood her until a boy came softly into the room and gazed at the suffering face curiously. "She wants her flower," he said as she moaned again, and like a flash he sped from the room, to return in a few moments bearing an almost withered plant in his hand. As he held it aloft the lustrous eyes saw it, and two tiny wasted hands arose from the cover and were outstretched to receive her treasure. She lifted it to her lips and rained kisses on the dust covered blossom, which seemed to answer her caress in a gleam of returning freshness.

She sank to sleep, still clutching the flower to her bosom, and awoke later with a calm look of contentment covering her features.

As the hours wore on she grew weaker and weaker until, when the shafts of morning's golden light first found their way into the quiet room, they fell about the cold, still form of a little girl, at whose cheek nestled a faded and withered flower, mingling itself in the faint smile that lingered yet around the perfect mouth.—Atlanta Constitution.
